Published by the SENIOR CLASS
of the
SEAGROVE HIGH SCHOOL
Seagrove, North Carolina

We, the Senior Class of 1957, through the publication of this annual have undertaken to show the many and various phases of school life which have encouraged us and have pointed us on toward the desirous goal of success.

We sincerely hope that in the years to come it will bring you as much pleasure as we have had in presenting it.

Dedication

THE SENIOR CLASS WISH TO HONOR

One of our teachers who, with patience and understanding, has encouraged us and helped us to overcome the obstacles that came before us.

A former classmate for our first eight years at Seagrove School, whom we hold in high esteem for the courageous way in which he has sought to overcome his handicap of Polio and to lead as normal a life as possible for him.

As a token of our sincere gratitude for all they have done for us we, the Senior Class, take pleasure in dedicating this, the 1957 edition of the Se-Hi to Clendon Richardson, our friend and former classmate, and to Mr. James O. Leonard, our beloved teacher.

Class History

Our class entered High School the fall of 1952. With our large class of 82 we had to be divided. Mrs. Walker Derr was the homeroom teacher for the girls and Mr. James Leonard was homeroom teacher for the boys.

As Freshmen we chose as our class officers: Paul Merritt, President; Peggy Latham, Vice President; Merle Bowman, Secretary and Reporter; Tommy Marsh, Treasurer. The girls on the basketball team were: Diana Williamson, Juanita Bennett, Ader Callahan, Venar Callahan, Lottie Hunter, Barbara Delk, Janice Brower, and Frances McNeill. The boys were: Cline Brown, C. E. Byrd, Leo Hinesley, and Dalton Auman. The boys on the Football team were: Tommy Marsh, C. E. Byrd, Charles Kennedy, and Billy Beane.

Sophomores! We began our sophomore year with 68 in the class. Mrs. Wade Harris was the homeroom teacher for the girls and Mr. James Swiggett was the homeroom teacher for the boys. Our class officers were: Tommy Marsh, President; Betty Harrison, Vice President; Lottie Hunter, Secretary; Charles Kennedy, Treasurer; Merle Bowman, Reporter. The girls on the Basketball team were: Ader Callahan, Venar Callahan, Diana Williamson, Juanita Bennett, Janice Brower, Lottie Hunter, and Frances McNeill. The boys were: Cline Brown, C. E. Byrd, Dalton Auman, and Leo Hinesley.

Juniors! As Juniors we were proud to have Mr. Albert Dunning as our homeroom teacher. Our class officers were: Tommy Marsh, President; Paul Merritt, Vice President; Venar Callahan, Secretary; Gary Auman, Treasurer; Shurby Spencer and Cline Brown, Reporters. The girls on the Basketball team were: Lottie Hunter, Frances McNeill, Diana Williamson, and Venar Callahan. The boys were: Cline Brown, C. E. Byrd, Dalton Auman, Leo Hinesley, and Clio Blanton. Twelve members received bids into the Beta Club. They were: Peggy Latham, Betty Harrison, Venar Callahan, Merle Bowman, Bernice Chriscoe, Thelma Harvel, Lottie Hunter, Max Caudill, Cline Brown, Gary Auman, Jack Sugg, and Charles Kennedy. As means of raising money for the Junior-Senior Banquet we sold magazines and presented as our class play, "No Bride for the Groom." Within a few short months our Junior Year was gone and we were looking forward to our Senior Year.

Seniors! How had time passed so quickly? Only three short years ago the Class of '57 entered high school. We began with the large number of 82 in our Freshman Class but ended up with only 38 seniors. Everyone was looking forward to his diploma and graduation. Our class was divided once again with Miss Kathleen Alexander and Mr. Guy B. Funderburk as our homeroom teachers. Our class officers were: Paul Merritt, President; Lottie Hunter, Vice President; Betty Harrison, Secretary; Merle Bowman, Treasurer; Peggy Latham and Charles Kennedy, Reporters. The girls on the Basketball team were: Lottie Hunter and Venar Callahan. The boys were: Cline Brown, and C. E. Byrd.

Class Prophecy

We're now at the end of our school days and at the beginning of our life's work. It comes time for us to look ahead and see what the future holds for the class of 1957.

We look now to Gary Auman who is the manager and the well known driver of hot rod cars for the Beane Blue Streak Race Track, which is owned by Billy Beane.

Graham Burns is now making top hit records for the C. E. Byrd Record Company.

Curtis Crisco is running a ranch in Arizona.

Vernon Hall has three oil wells, six Dairy Farms, and 10 movie studios, and is President of "The Wild Bird's Society."

Betty Harrison is now a model in New York. She is modeling for the Kennedy Modeling Agency, owned by Charles Kennedy.

Peggy Latham Brown is now head of her own household in California. She often entertains the movie stars in her home in Pasadena, California.

Tommy Marsh has been tapped cutest boy and Campus King at Duke University.

Bobby Poole is now Master of Ceremonies for that Famous TV Show, "The Hush Hour."

Betty Rose has gone to Florida and has opened a winter resort called Roseland in Winter, and is managed by our dashing Jack Sugg.

David Wilson is now in Hollywood making such movies as, "The Crazy Cut-Up," and "The Little Man from North Carolina."

We have just received a telegram from "Miss Universe," who is now in Italy. Miss Universe is Carol Auman.

Dalton Auman is now directing a band, "The Dixieland Nine." We see two well-known Pop-Singers with his band. They are Max Caudill and Cline Brown.

Patricia Bondurant Benbow will be running her home with a stern hand and a soft heart.

We go now to the Senate floor and see two well-known senators who are doing North Carolina proud. They are now speaking in behalf of a woman President. They are Merle Bowman and Bernice Chriscoe.

Faye Brower Moore will be making a comfortable home for her family.

Venar Callahan is coaching the girls' basketball team at Wake Forest College. Her fame is spreading throughout the state and country.

We have just entered our National Contest for Mrs. America. This title is won by Ramona Clark Parks.

Virginia Stevens Comer is running a driving school called, "The Tucker Dollar Drive School," which is owned by Barbara Tucker.

Louise Wright has opened a law office in Seagrove and is now getting cases all over the country.

Billy Wright has the national title of "Mr. Well-Dressed."

We have a new all-girls' college with the title, "Twilight College." The Dean is none other than Walter Pope.

Thelma Harvel is now a speaker in the House of Representatives in Washington, D.C. She is the wife of America's Ambassador to France, who is our own Paul Merritt.

Class Prophecy

We are now looking on Luck's Inc., and we see that there has been a great change made.

None other than Leo Hinsley has been made the owner.

The Seagrove High Girls' Basketball Team is now undefeated, no wonder with Lottie Hunter the coach. She has led the team to great victories.

Bobby Maness is now part owner of Burlington Mills, and is headed for the full ownership.

Doris and Margaret Richardson are now Beauty Operators, and have set up their own shop which is called, "The Richardson Salon," in Seagrove, North Carolina.

As we look in at the world's largest Race Track, we see driving a Fordomatic, Alice Spencer, the world's undefeated woman driver.

Our own Fannie Stutts is the world's famous librarian, and has her own library in Seagrove. Harvey Yow is now happily married and is now living on a farm in Erect, North Carolina.

Class Poem

The future seemed so far away
When we began this journey,
School days were to us but play,
With now and then some learning.

Our friendships we will treasure,
Through the years we are in college.
For along with many pleasures
We all have gained some knowledge.

CLASS COLORS
Blue and White

CLASS FLOWER
Red Carnation

Many things we know for sure
As we this night disband;
We are almost in the future,
Alas, it is at hand!

As we our life's work do commence,
Let all of us remember;
The many joys we have experienced
Since last it was September.

CLASS MOTTO

We have crossed the bay; the ocean lies before us.
